THE PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COUNCILS' MAJOR ACHIEVEMENTS 2007-2008

- In addition to the existing Cover of Excellence® Schemes established in New South Wales, new Schemes commenced in the Australian Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, South Australia, Victoria and Western Australia for the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (ICAA) and the Certified Practicing Accountants Australia (CPA Australia).
- The Professional Standards Councils worked in co-operation with the Commonwealth Treasury regarding the prescription of Cover of Excellence® Schemes under the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth). Schemes were prescribed by the Commonwealth for the ICAA and CPA Australia in all mainland jurisdictions, as well as for the Victorian Bar Incorporated (Vic Bar). Further, in New South Wales, the Law Society of New South Wales (LSNSW), the Professional Surveyors Occupational Association (PSOA), the College of Remedial and Investigative Consulting Engineers of Australia (CIRCEA), and the Australian Valuers Institute (AVI) also had Schemes prescribed under the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth).
- The Professional Standards Councils continued to promote the selfregulation of professionals, with information events held in Melbourne and Canberra.
- The Councils and all the State and Territory justice departments agreed to sign Inter-departmental Service Agreements before the end of the 2007-08 financial year. These Agreements will ensure effective Secretariat support provided by the NSW Attorney General's Department for all Councils throughout Australia.
- The Councils continued to monitor the implementation of risk management strategies of all occupational associations that enjoy the benefit of a Cover of Excellence® Scheme.

OUR VISION:

PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE — CONSUMER PROTECTION

OUR MISSION:

The Professional Standards Councils' mission is to promote consumer protection and excellence in professional standards by encouraging the self-regulation of occupational groups through the implementation of Cover of Excellence® Schemes (Schemes).

Cover of Excellence® Schemes operate for participating members of occupational associations, and:

- > recognise those who implement robust risk management strategies such as complaints and discipline systems, codes of ethics, and continuing occupational education
- > limit occupational liability for members of occupational associations who carry professional indemnity insurance and/or business assets to the limitation of liability amount, and
- > entitle members of the occupational association to enjoy the reputation of the Cover of Excellence® logo.

History and profile of the Professional Standards Councils

The New South Wales Attorney General established the Professional Standards Council in 1995 under section 39 of the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW). It was created to help professional and other occupational associations improve the regulation of their members so that consumers of their services are better protected.

Similar Councils were created subsequently in other Australian jurisdictions. The Professional Standards Council of Western Australia was established in 1997 under section 8 of the Professional Standards Act 1997 (WA). Professional standards legislation was passed in the remaining jurisdictions after 2003. In 2005, the Professional Standards Council of Victoria was established, while the Professional Standards Councils of Tasmania, the Northern Territory and South Australia were formed in 2006; the Professional Standards Council of Queensland was formed in 2007. The Professional Standards Council of the Australian Capital Territory was formed this financial year under section 4.36 of the Civil Law (Wrongs) Act 2002 (ACT).

The Treasury Legislation Amendment (Professional Standards) Act 2004 (Cth) permits the Commonwealth to prescribe Cover of Excellence® Schemes so as to limit the liabilities of occupational associations pursuant to the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth), the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 (Cth).

The New South Wales Bar Association (NSW Bar) Cover of Excellence® Scheme was the first Scheme to be prescribed under the Treasury Legislation Amendment (Professional Standards) Act 2004 (Cth) in May 2006. The Institute of Engineers Australia (EA) New South Wales Cover of Excellence® Scheme was prescribed in April 2007, followed by the ICAA New South Wales and the CPA Australia New South Wales Cover of Excellence® Schemes, effective from 25 October 2007. Since then, a further 16 Schemes have been prescribed during the 2007–08 financial year.

The Attorneys General of each of the States and Territories (SCAG), the Commonwealth Minister for Revenue, and the Commonwealth Assistant Treasurer signed the Professional Standards Agreement in October 2005. Under this agreement, all States and Territories have agreed to appoint the same members to each of the eight Professional Standards Councils. There are 11 members in total. New South Wales and Victoria have nominated two members each; the other States and Territories and the Commonwealth have nominated one member each.

The Professional Standards Councils approve and monitor the Cover of Excellence® Schemes, which aim to improve professional standards, protect consumers and limit the civil liability of professional and other occupational groups in certain circumstances.

Under the supervision of the Councils, the Secretariat assists occupational associations in the preparation of Scheme applications, administers the risk management reporting of occupational associations and on occasion, conducts research and forums to facilitate the improvement of occupational standards of professionals and associations.

It is the intention of all jurisdictions that the Councils will be self-funding, with revenue to be derived from application and annual fees. As an interim measure, all jurisdictions that do not currently generate income from application and annual fees have access to seed funds that may be repayable from future fees revenue.

Cover of Excellence® Schemes

THE ROLE OF THE PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COUNCILS

The Professional Standards Councils are responsible for approving and monitoring associations' Cover of Excellence® Schemes. Schemes limit the civil liability of members of associations that have the benefit of an insurance policy and/or business assets to the level of the limitation of liability. Participating associations are required to meet a range of criteria, including codes of ethics, codes of conduct, and complaints and disciplinary mechanisms. In addition, each association has a standard of insurance to which it must comply.

Approving Cover of Excellence® Schemes

Before approving a Cover of Excellence® Scheme, Councils must consider:

- public comments and submissions made in response to the public notification of a Cover of Excellence® Scheme
- the position of consumers who may be affected by limiting the occupational liability of members of the association
- the nature and level of claims relating to occupational liability made against members of an association seeking the Cover of Excellence® Scheme
- the association's standards of insurance
- the cost and availability of insurance, and
- the association's risk management strategies and how those strategies are intended to be implemented. Such strategies may include the adoption of a code of ethics, the establishment of a complaints and discipline system, and the provision of continuing professional development programs.

Determining limits of liability

The Professional Standards Councils are responsible for determining the limitation of liability of professional and/or other occupational associations. When doing so, the Councils must consider the nature and level of claims made against members of the association and the need to adequately protect consumers, that is, the risk that consumers may have to bear as a result of a certain level of capped liability being approved.

Monitoring associations' risk management strategies

Associations must demonstrate that they have the capacity to implement risk management strategies and to administer their *Cover of Excellence®*Schemes for the benefit of consumer protection. Participating associations must report annually to the Councils about the mechanisms used to implement their risk management strategies as well as the effectiveness of such strategies in improving the professional standards of individual professionals.

Improving professional standards

The Professional Standards Councils work together with associations to develop self-regulation mechanisms (meta-regulations) in order to improve their professional standards. The Councils conduct research, develop policies and guidelines, and organise events to promote debate and change, in the areas of professional standards, codes of ethics and conduct, and risk management in order to improve the standard of services received by consumers.

Protecting consumers

The Councils' goals are to continue to strengthen and extend professionalism of individuals within occupational associations, promote self-regulation across occupational groups, and to protect consumers by demanding high levels of professional standards and practices of those occupational associations seeking to gain a limited liability cap, as well as by expanding the number of Cover of Excellence® Schemes in operation. Once a particular Cover of Excellence® Scheme of an occupational association is approved, the Councils allow members of the association to use the Cover of Excellence® logo as a mark of the quality standards and practices that consumers can expect to receive.

Dear Attorneys General,

Having been fully constituted in all Australian States and Territories in 2006–07, the Professional Standards Councils during the 2007–08 financial year have continued to receive applications for new Schemes and renewals of existing Schemes.

The focus of the Professional Standards Councils this year has been to develop strong foundations for the future of the Councils through the signing of service agreements and co-operation between the States and Territories. Improvements to the professional standards legislative framework also continued during 2007–08 through amendments supporting the mutual recognition of inter-state Schemes. The Australian Capital Territory, New South Wales and the Northern Territory have since passed mutual recognition amendments. The implementation of these amendments has allowed the Professional Standards Councils to promote consistency in professional standards legislation across jurisdictions.

Of significance, in the 2007–08 financial year, the Councils received applications for the

The Councils have also worked closely with the Commonwealth, which prescribed a further 19 Schemes under the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth), highlighting the significant market demand for Professional Standard Schemes with Commonwealth prescription. This is a marked increase in comparison to previous years, and further gives testament to the growing awareness of the functions and services of the Professional Standards Councils, as well as the benefits to occupational associations and protection afforded to consumers.

The 2007–08 financial year has also presented an opportunity for the Councils to review their current internal practices in order to further fulfil the objectives of the professional standards legislation. An appropriate timetable and mechanisms for review are being considered, and it is envisaged that any such review will engage significant resources of the Councils and the Secretariat during the 2008–09 financial year.

The Professional Standards Councils were much assisted by the hard and diligent work performed in the leadership of the Secretariat by Ms Philippa Seagrave, who is acting as Executive Officer. Ms Seagrave and the Secretariat staff have made an outstanding contribution to the work of the Council and will continue to lead the Secretariat in the 2008–09 financial year while Dr Kate Sainsbury remains on leave.

Yours faithfully,

Brankayment

Brian Rayment QC

SECRETARIAT REPORT

The focus of the Secretariat during 2007–08 has been on the processing of Scheme applications for new and existing clients. This included the development and implementation of Schemes in jurisdictions other than New South Wales for the first time.

Structure and staffing within the Secretariat

Two Secretariat establishment positions (1.6 full time equivalent) were vacant during 2007–08. However, two new legal/policy positions have been created to assist the Secretariat to provide support to all the Councils. Recruitment is currently underway for these positions, with appointments expected to commence in the new financial year.

The Secretariat continued to participate in the Attorney General's Department Graduate Program, and was assisted by Ms Veronica Chan and Ms Laura Joseph.

Ms Mary Abi-Younes continued to provide administrative support to the Secretariat.

The Executive Officer, Dr Kate Sainsbury, has extended her leave to June 2009.

Co-operation with the Professional Standards Legislation Working Group

The Secretariat continues to support the work of the Professional Standards Legislation Working Group (PSLWG). The PSLWG consists of a group of officers from each State and Territory responsible for the implementation of the equivalent professional standards legislation in each jurisdiction.

Co-operation with the PSLWG has allowed for progress in the negotiating and drafting of the Inter-departmental Service Agreement between the NSW Attorney General's Department, the Councils and the Justice Departments in each jurisdiction. This co-operation has also allowed amendments to professional standards legislation across all Australian States and Territories in order to ensure that:

- Costs-inclusive insurance policies can be used to limit the liability of professionals under the legislation.
- Mutual recognition of Cover of Excellence® Schemes is established across jurisdictions.
- A fee structure can be implemented to ensure that the Professional Standards Councils are self-funding.

Policy development

The Secretariat conducted research and worked with clients to assist the Councils to review and develop a number of their policies to better achieve the aims of professional standards legislation and to meet their clients' needs more effectively.

The Councils' policies on annual fees, insurance standards, and compliance guidelines have all been revised. The Application Guidelines and Risk Management Reporting Guidelines continue to be reviewed.

The Secretariat commenced the implementation of the Marketing Strategy and the Website Strategy, which were endorsed by the Councils in 2006–07. The new website was launched in May 2008 at www.professionalstandardscouncils.gov.au.

Plans for 2008–09

The Secretariat is seeking to revise a number of its processes in the coming year. Key initiatives for the Secretariat during the year ahead include:

- mapping the Cover of Excellence®
   Scheme applications process in order to identify priority areas for improvement
- revising Cover of Excellence® Scheme Application Guidelines for all States/ Territories
- revising draft Guidelines for Associations' Annual Reporting
- developing revised Risk Management Guidelines for associations
- developing and implementing guidelines on insurance claims data
- implementing a feedback and complaints handling mechanism through the multi-jurisdictional Professional Standards Council website.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COUNCILS' OPERATIONS

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Annual Reporting Guidelines

The Professional Standards Councils are continuing a major review of the associations' annual reporting requirements. The review implements the recommendations of the 2006 NSW Attorney General's Department Internal Audit Plan, conducted by Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu. The guidelines are expected to be completed in the coming year and will ensure compliance with Risk Management Standard AS/NZS 4360:2004.

Review of the Policy Statement on Professional Indemnity Insurance

The Policy Statement on Professional Indemnity Insurance is a guide for occupational associations regarding the insurance standards applicable to members of their associated Cover of Excellence® Schemes. The Policy Statement was reviewed on 14 September 2007. The Councils incorporated submissions from stakeholders to create a less prescriptive policy statement that will allow occupational associations greater flexibility in determining the insurance standards of their Scheme participants in the existing insurance market. The Policy Statement on Professional Indemnity Insurance is available at the Councils' website (www.professionalstandardscouncil.gov.au).

Star Initiative Grants Program: Providing associations with assistance

The Professional Standards Councils offer grants to association members, who enjoy the benefit of a Scheme to undertake activities and research that contribute to the improvement of professional standards and consumer protection. The grants are awarded on a merits basis for risk management strategies, research, seminars or other initiatives that support the principles of professional standards legislation.

Star Initiative Grants were not offered in the 2007–08 financial year. The Councils are considering a reevaluation of the objectives of the Star Initiative Grants Program in order that approved grants assist the achievement of such objectives of the program.

EXCHANGING KNOWLEDGE

The Professional Standards Councils' website www.professionalstandardscouncil.gov.au

Information about the Professional Standards Councils is disseminated through its website, which publishes all current Schemes and information about the Councils' policies, as well as links to current and historical copies of publications, including annual reports and consultative papers.

The new Website Strategy, which was developed in 2006–07, has been successfully implemented during the 2007–08 financial year. The website was redesigned in order to reflect the close co-operation between the State and Territory Professional Standards Councils as well as to increase the accessibility of information to stakeholders, especially consumers, in all jurisdictions.

Meeting with stakeholders

The Secretariat meets regularly with members of its stakeholder associations. In addition, information seminars about the work of the Professional Standards Councils and Cover of Excellence® Schemes were held in Canberra and Melbourne during the financial year.

Promoting professional standards and Cover of Excellence® Schemes to consumers

The Cover of Excellence® slogan, the seven-point-star logo, and their composite are registered trademarks of the Professional Standards Council of New South Wales. This trademark is registered Australia wide and all the State and Territory Professional Standard Councils use this trademark with the permission of the Professional Standards Council of New South Wales. The trademark clearly identifies the Councils and members of Schemes approved by it to consumers. The Councils have revised the licence to use the trademark to ensure that professionals use it in an appropriate manner.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Councils are committed to implementing sound principles of corporate governance. These are outlined in the Councils' Corporate Governance Principles: A Guide for Occupational Associations (April 2005).

Terms of office and remuneration

The Professional Standards Councils' members are appointed for a term of up to three years, and Council members are eligible for re-appointment at the expiration of their term. In the 2007–08 financial year, Mr Justin Harper, nominated by the Queensland Attorney General, was appointed to the Councils.

All State and Territory Council members whose term of office expired on 30 June 2008 have accepted nominations for a further term, and it is expected the accumulated expertise will enable the Councils to further fulfil the professional standards legislative mandate.

An allowance/sitting fee for Council members is paid for attendance at Council, Working Party and Committee meetings. This sitting fee is based on the Premier's Department Guidelines for NSW Board and Committee Members.

The remuneration of Council members consists of the following:

Table 1: Remuneration of Council members

Council member	Meetings up to 4 hours	Each hour thereafter
Chairman	$593.00	$125.00
Members	$361.00	$75.00

The Chairman is also paid a retainer of $2,575.00 per annum for out-of-session work and Council related expenses.

The average sitting time of Council meetings during the period was approximately 3 hours and 19 minutes.

Procedures

Procedures for Council meetings are guided by provisions in professional standards legislation in each jurisdiction. Policies developed since the Councils were established provide additional guidance for the operation of meetings.

A Members' Handbook has been developed to further assist Council members. It contains information about the procedures and policies of the Councils, copies of current Schemes, a comparative table of professional standards legislation and the terms and conditions of members' appointments. The Members' Handbook is currently being updated; when completed, it will refer to relevant legislation and policies and procedures across the eight jurisdictions.

Meetings of the Councils

The number of meetings held and attendance information can be found under the jurisdiction-specific pages in this annual report.

Committees

The Professional Standards Councils can establish committees to assist the Councils in their work. During the 2007–08 financial year, the Audit and Risk Management Committee (ARMC), which was established during 2006–07, continued to meet in order to discuss the operations and risk management issues facing the Professional Standards Councils. Specifically, the ARMC considers the Professional Standards Councils' financial position, budget management, internal controls, risk management strategies and business plan.

Like the Professional Standards Councils, the ARMC has common membership across all State and Territory jurisdictions. The members of the ARMC during the 2007–08 financial year were:

- Steven Cole (Chairman)
- Esther Alter
- · Iain Summers, and
- Ronald Farrell.

The Executive Officer of the Secretariat, Ms Philippa Seagrave attends these meetings as a visitor.

Appointment to the ARMC is on an annual basis. Members may also be re-appointed. It is anticipated that the above members will have their membership renewed.

Risk Management Program

The Professional Standards Councils have implemented an Internal Risk Management Program (IRMP) based on the Risk Management Standard AS/NZS 4360:2004. The IRMP assists the Professional Standards Councils to identify and resolve diverse risks, including external risks such as commercial and legal risks, and internal risks such as those associated with corporate knowledge management and financial administration. The ARMC, through a series of workshops with the Secretariat, has developed a comprehensive Risk Register and associated Risk Treatment plans for the 2007-08 period. The Professional Standards Councils and the ARMC have continued to be briefed quarterly on progress to mitigate key risks.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE OF THE COUNCILS

All Professional Standards Councils operate with the assistance of Secretariat support provided by the NSW Attorney General's Department. The financial performance report of each Council can be found in the Financial Reports section, which identifies the revenue received for each Council and their proportion of the expenditure. If audited financial information is avaliable this is identified in this section.

CO-OPERATION AMONG PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COUNCILS

Inter-governmental Agreement

The Professional Standards Agreement 2005 was endorsed and executed by the SCAG, and signed by all State and Territory Attorneys General and the Commonwealth Minister for Revenue and Assistant Treasurer of the Commonwealth in the same year. The Agreement provides for common membership of State and Territory Professional Standards Councils, and the use by each Professional Standards Council of a common Secretariat, operating in the NSW Attorney General's Department. During the 2007–08 financial year, there was continued support for the Professional Standards Agreement.

Inter-departmental service agreements

The Secretariat, Councils and their associated Departments have undertaken major work in negotiating service agreements between the Councils and the departments and the NSW Attorney General's Department. During the 2007–08 financial year, the majority of States and Territories became signatories to this Service Agreement. The service agreements enable further co-operation between the State and Territories by ensuring that the expenditure incurred pertaining to operating the Secretariat and the Councils is allotted and borne by the jurisdictions in an equitable manner.

LEGISLATIVE CHANGE

The Professional Standards Councils are responsible for giving advice to the Attorneys General on the operation of professional standards legislation. The Councils have taken an active role in this regard during the period. Some key areas that the Councils have considered are, costs-inclusive insurance policies, mutual recognition of inter-state Schemes and the consistency of Schemes across jurisdictions.

Costs-inclusive insurance amendment

The Attorneys General were informed by the Councils of the advice they had received that professional standards legislation may not allow a person to whom a Scheme applies to rely on a costs-inclusive policy. Many professionals who had the benefit of a Scheme typically held the more readily available costs-inclusive cover.

An amendment was requested to clarify the fact that both costs-inclusive and costs-in-addition insurance policies could be used for the purposes of limiting liability under professional standards legislation. The SCAG gave in-principle support to the amendment in April 2006. Amendments to the legislation were adopted in Victoria on 11 October 2006, in New South Wales on 27 October 2006, in Tasmania on 18 December 2006, in South Australia on 18 January 2007, in the Northern Territory on 4 April 2007, and in the Australian Capital Territory on 6 May 2008.

Mutual recognition of Schemes

The Councils also identified the need for an amendment to professional standards legislation to allow mutual recognition of Schemes across State and Territory jurisdictions. Such an amendment would enable professional standards legislation to work more efficiently in all jurisdictions. The implementation of mutual recognition benefits professionals, associations and the Councils due to decreased compliance and other costs, and consumers would benefit from greater clarity and certainty. Amendments commenced in New South Wales on 15 June 2007, in the Northern Territory on 1 April 2008, and in the Australian Capital Territory on 18 May 2008. Similar amendments are expected to be made in other jurisdictions in the coming financial year.

Regulations

The Councils responded to associations' concerns about the timing of quarterly annual fee payments by requesting an amendment to the Regulations to allow fees to be paid at the end of a calendar quarter, rather than quarterly, based on the anniversary of the commencement of a Scheme.

Regulations incorporating the Councils' proposals commenced in South Australia on 1 October 2006, in New South Wales on 8 December 2006, in Western Australia on 29 December 2006, in Victoria on 7 November 2007, in Queensland on 9 February 2007, in the Northern Territory on 1 January 2008, and in the Australian Capital Territory on 1 July 2008.

COMMONWEALTH CO-OPERATION

The Secretariat has had regular correspondence and conferences with Commonwealth Treasury representatives. A Commonwealth Treasury representative has also been present at Council meetings during 2007–08. The Chairman and Executive Officer briefed the new Commonwealth Assistant Treasurer and Minister for Competition Policy and Consumer Affairs, the Honourable Chris Bowen, MP on the multi-jurisdictional arrangements of professional standards legislation to protect consumers and facilitate improvements in professional standards.

This co-operation has paved the way for a number of Schemes to be prescribed, for the five year life of the Scheme, including:

- AVI New South Wales Scheme
- ICAA New South Wales and Western Australia Schemes
- CPA Australia New South Wales Scheme
- CIRCEA New South Wales Scheme, and
- · LSNSW Scheme.

In addition, a number of other Schemes have been prescribed for a period of 12 months from 12 June 2008, including:

- ICAA Schemes in the Australia Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, South Australia and Victoria
- CPA Australia Schemes in the Australian Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, South Australia, Victoria and Western Australia,
- PSOA New South Wales Scheme, and
- The Victorian Bar Inc Scheme.

CURRENT SCHEMES IN THE AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

During the reporting period two Cover of Excellence® Schemes were approved for operation in the Australian Capital Territory: the CPA Australia Cover of Excellence® Scheme and the ICAA Cover of Excellence® Scheme. These Schemes are the first to be approved by the Professional Standards Council of the Australian Capital Territory.

The following table sets out the persons to whom the Scheme applies, the limitation of liability, the start and expiry date of each Scheme.

SCHEMES IN FOCUS 2008

Occupational associations covered by Cover of Excellence® Schemes are required to report annually to their State-based Council on the implementation of risk management strategies within their association and the effect of the strategies in mitigating risks, improving standards and enhancing consumer protection. The reporting period for Cover of Excellence® Schemes is 1 January to 31 December (calendar year) with the report required to be submitted to Council by 31 March the following year. Each state-based Council reports on the performance of the participating professional associations in relation to such risks each year in the Councils' annual report.

The reporting requirement ensures that a professional association makes constant and timely improvements to their practices to the benefit of consumers in order to enable it to keep the limited liability cap granted by the Councils.

Examining the strategies and risks of professional associations allows the Councils to further consider whether a limited liability cap requires variation, due to changes in risks faced or undertaken by a professional association. The obligation to report is fundamental to the 'monitoring' aspect of the responsibility of the Professional Standards Councils in all jurisdictions.

The 2007–08 financial year represents the first year in which Schemes have been approved outside New South Wales. New Schemes have been approved in the Australian Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, South Australia, Victoria and Western Australia as well as New South Wales. As the first annual risk management reports for these new Schemes are not due until 31 March 2009, information regarding the risk management strategies under these Schemes in the Australian Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, South Australia, Victoria and Western Australia are not included in this annual report. Details regarding such new Schemes will be provided in the 2008–09 annual report.

Currently all the Professional Standards Councils are developing improved Guidelines for Annual Risk Management Reporting (the Guidelines) for participating associations, particularly relating to those that have Schemes in multiple jurisdictions. The Guidelines will reflect the AS/NZS 4360:2004 Risk Management, and will build stronger links with the initial Five-year Risk Management Plan that each occupational association is required to submit as part of the application process for a Cover of Excellence® Scheme. This will assist the Councils and the participating associations to measure performance in an objective and meaningful manner, as well as in adhering to best practice risk management.

CURRENT COVER OF EXCELLENCE® SCHEMES REQUIRED TO REPORT IN NEW SOUTH WALES

There are currently nine Cover of Excellence® Schemes in operation in New South Wales, covering nine occupational associations and six different occupations under the Professional Standards Act (1994) (NSW).

The Schemes are:

- ICAA Australia (NSW Scheme)
- NIA
- CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)
- AVI
- NSW Bar
- EA*
- LSNSW
- PSOA*, and
- CIRCEA
- * The EA does not currently have members and therefore cannot provide a Risk Management Report at this stage. The PSOA's renewed Scheme commenced on 12 November 2007 and is not registered to report in the 2007-08 reporting year.

The Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) requires participating occupational associations to provide an annual Risk Management Report to the Professional Standards Council of New South Wales about implementation and monitoring of their risk management strategies, the effect of those strategies, and any changes made, or proposed to be made to them, as stated in section 37 of the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW). The annual reporting program is designed to help associations manage their occupational risks and protect consumers by fostering an adaptive approach to risk management and improvements in professional standards.

The participating associations reported on the following nine key strategic areas in their 2007 reports:

- 1. advisory and support services
- 2. codes of ethics
- 3. complaints and discipline systems
- 4. continuing occupational education
- 5. membership entry requirements
- 6. technical standards and guidance
- 7. quality control programs and quality assurance systems
- 8. claims and insurance monitoring, and
- 9. compliance with disclosure and Cover of Excellence® requirements

Who reports on what?

The following table identifies the categories each occupational association reports under — since not all associations report on each category as only three categories are compulsory, and the other categories reported reflect the individual risk profiles of each occupational association.

The ICAA report covers the period 1 January 2007 to 31 October 2007, when the Scheme expired. The ICAA have since had more Schemes established and will be reporting on these Schemes in the 2008 calendar reporting period (31 March 2009).

The AVI Scheme began half-way through the Risk Management reporting year (July 2007); hence, the AVI report covers the period from commencement of the Scheme to the end of the calendar year.

ANNUAL RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

ANNUAL RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

Table 13 to 21 below highlight strategies, actions and progress made by individual occupational associations in dealing with specific and statutory requirements, based on the initial Five-year Risk Management Plans submitted as part of the application process and annual implementation reports.

1. Advisory and support services

Associations are expected to provide members with encouragement and support in their professional fields through advisory services covering workplace issues as well as promoting work-life balance. Increasingly, occupational related support services (such as counselling) are delivered electronically, customised, and confidentially in pro-active ways, with lessons learned available through newsletters, mentoring and other communication pathways.

Table 13: Advisory and support services

Association	Strategy	Actions and/or outcomes
AVI	Promote informal use of Board members and Institute Secretary for advisory services	Action: Advisory service usage discussed at monthly Board meetings
	Regular information updates provided to members	Outcome: Effective practical tool for responding to small but constant inquiries
		Action: Distribution mechanism changed to reflect member preferences from website forum to regular newsletter/email contact
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	Provide access to timely updates and information for members	Action: Regular publication of CPA Australia Update, CPA Tax News and In The Black newsletters
	Increase technical support for members through delivery of tailored tools and resources	Action: Development of Independence Guide on Interpretation in conjunction with ICAA
	Development of new education pathway for membership via the development of a 4–6 unit conversion program	Action: A range of initiatives have been continued such as:     commissioning research into skills shortages     recruitment activities in universities and schools, and     project to retain mature-aged members in the workforce
LSNSW	Availability and support for lawyers through LawCare	Outcome: More than 80 practitioners sought advice from LawCare (slightly up from last year)  Outcome: 132 practitioners sought advice from the Lawyers Asistance Program in the 2006–07 financial year
NSW Bar	Ongoing financial support for BarCare (covering costs of initial costs of assessment, counselling and referral)	Outcome: Significant increase in usage from previous year (from 15 in 2004–05 to 13 in 2005–06 to 30 in 2006–07) for barristers and/or family members
		Outcome: Decrease in the number of complaints that have resulted from stress or emotional issues

2. Codes of Ethics

It is a mandatory requirement for participating associations to have in place a Code of Ethics. Members of occupational associations are required to abide by the code and occupational associations are required to report on compliance (and efforts to ensure compliance) with their respective Code of Ethics.

Most associations focus on enhancing existing standards of ethical conduct of members by ensuring compliance with legal obligations and regular training opportunities for members in ethics. For some occupational associations such as the LSNSW, ongoing training in ethics related issues is a mandatory component of their ongoing training requirements.

As noted last year, the three occupational associations with Schemes covering the accounting profession financially support and implement a national occupational code of ethics through the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board (APESB) — the ICAA, the CPA Australia and the NIA. Different implementation programs for each of the occupational associations continue to reflect the different risk profiles and emphasis of each of the occupational associations. All three accounting profession associations have independent assessment of their compliance with the APESB ethical standards, which provides independent assessment as to the rigorous compliance with ethical standards.

Table 14: Codes of ethics

Association	Strategy	Actions and/or outcomes
AVI	Include in membership applications and renewals a declaration that the member will be bound by the AVI's Code of Ethics	Outcome: 100% compliance — applications are not processed without affirmation of declaration
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	Review and update study materials relating to ethics and professionalism in the CPA Australia Program, Public Practice Program and Risk Management Program	Outcome: Material in the CPA Australia Program and the Public Practice Program updated in Semester 2, 2007, to reflect new standards issued by APESB
ICAA (NSW Scheme)	Ongoing compliance with Statement of Membership Obligations (SMO4): International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants	Action: Ongoing compliance assessed bi-annually and are due for review in 2009
NIA	Communicate and educate practitioners on NIA's Code of Ethics	Outcome: New members educated on Code of Ethics obligations as part of orientation  NIA Code of Ethics guidelines cover areas where APESB does not have standards
NSW Bar	Ensure knowledge of ethical issues as part of entry requirements	Outcome: New barristers are required to pass an ethics exam (with a pass mark of 75% or more)
	Ongoing education in ethical matters	Outcome: All barristers are required to obtain at least 1 CPD point in the Ethics and Regulation of the Profession strand per CPD cycle (3 years)
LSNSW	Code/statements are implemented and reviewed by Ethics Committee and Ethics Officers	Action: LSNSW officers are involved in ongoing development and review of Solicitors Rules
		Outcome: In February 2007, the Council resolved that ethics education be a mandatory component of ongoing training

ANNUAL RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

3. Complaints and discipline systems

A key requirement for maintaining a Cover of Excellence® Scheme is consumer protection. Associations must deal with complaints against members from consumers regarding their members' services. Complaints systems must allow consumers and association members to access complaints mechanisms that are fair and transparent. The system must allow for timely resolution, and consumers must be made aware of the nature, scope and steps of a complaints procedure that is available to them.

The Financial Reporting Council, which oversees the strategic direction of Australian Accounting Standards Board and the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board, reported on all accountancy bodies' professional conduct processes, and found for the second year in a row that the processes were effective and appropriate to meet the bodies' roles and responsibilities.

All associations with approved Schemes have procedures in place for dealing with complaints.

Table 15: Complaints and discipline

Association	Strategies	Actions and/or outcomes
AVI	All members required to adhere to AVI's complaints procedure	Outcome: During the reporting period no complaints were received about current members (6 months)
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	Continual improvement in the investigation and disciplinary process	Outcome: Slight increase in complaints from 145 externally initiated complaints to 169, Australia wide in 2007  Outcome: 67 members appeared before a disciplinary tribunal with outcomes reported on CPA Australia website
ICAA Australia (NSW Scheme)	Ongoing compliance with Statement of Membership Obligations (SMO) 6: Investigation and Discipline	Outcome: During the 2006–07 financial year the Professional Conduct team initiated investigations into 317 formal complaints  Action: Significant amendments were made to the Member Complaints and Discipline section of the website, including:  information on complaints process  online complaints processes, and improved access to reports of professional conduct tribunals (updated monthly)
LSNSW	Decrease in negligence claims and complaints over the long term	Outcome: 596 negligence notifications were lodged with LawCover  Outcome: The Professional Standards Department (of the LSNSW) opened 540 complaints (19% less than the previous period)  Outcome: During the same period the Office of the Legal Services Commissioner received 2,487 written complaints (33 less than the previous year)  Outcome: 16 solicitors were reprimanded, 26 referred to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal, 16 had their practicing certificate cancelled or suspended, 6 had names removed from the Supreme Court Roll
NIA	Maintain a complaints and disciplinary system that is open, accessible, responsive and independent	Action: Additional independent (non-NIA) members added to the Complaints Tribunal and improved streamlining processes  Outcome: Investigation process is subject to annual external review to comply with ISO 9001/2000 accreditation process  Outcome: 12 new complaints against members
NSW Bar	Meet statutory obligations with respect to complaints and notification and other disclosures under the Legal Professions Act 2004 (NSW) and associated regulations	Outcome: In the 12 months to 30 June 2007:  45 conduct complaints were referred by the Legal Services Commissioner, and  15 new conduct complaints were reported to the Bar Council by the Professional Conduct Committee  Outcome: After a review, new procedures for the Professional Conduct Committee have been developed and implemented

4. Continuing occupational education

A key component in mitigating risks facing occupational associations is the provision of Continuing Occupational Education (COE), sometimes called Continuing Professional Development (CPD), Training and Development (T&D) or Continuing Professional Education (CPE) by occupational associations. Outcomes of complaints, insurance claims, and innovation and precedence in the profession should form the basis of regular review of COE or CPD courses. This ensures that the skills and knowledge of members increases in order to reduce risks associated with out-of-date information affecting services provided by members and, hence, the standards and reputation of the occupational association and its members.

Continuing occupational education requirements also ensure that the knowledge of risks facing members of occupational associations is widespread and methods to manage such risks are available to practitioners, allowing risks to be minimised.

Many of the occupational associations provide regular communications regarding training opportunities through electronic and hard-copy publications to promote upcoming courses, and keep members abreast of latest professional news, guidance and analysis.

ANNUAL RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

Table 16: Continuing occupational education

Association	Strategies	Actions and/or outcomes
AVI	Mandatory 40 hours continuing occupational education each year	Outcome: 100% compliance with continuing professional development requirements
		Action: Random audit conducted of members of training attendance revealed 100% compliance
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	for auditors of self-managed	Outcome: Identification of key knowledge and skills required for undertaking audit and development of competency-based standard based on these skills
	superannuation funds (in conjunction with the ICAA and the NIA)	Outcome: New standards launched in February 2008
	Provide easily accessible relevant continuing occupational education	Action: Strategic investment in course management software to improve content delivery across multiple delivery modes
		Outcome: My Online Learning was launched in September 2007 to provide members with more choice and flexibility in undertaking and tracking their development
ICAA	Monitor compliance of members to	Action: Focused training on core technical skills
(NSW Scheme)	meet COE statutory requirements (e.g. company auditors, company liquidators, tax agents, licensed municipal auditors, etc.)	Outcome: Rapid increase in-house training clients (from 66 to 130) over 1,850 hours, which was a 48% increase over the previous year
	Implementation of training toolkits and guidance notes	Action: New guidance notes include a fully updated Quality Control Guide and revised Members Handbook
LSNSW	Annual audit of members to monitor compliance with mandatory	Action: 550 members randomly audited each year
	continuing professional education requirements Course attendance statistics	Outcome: Continued high level of compliance with less than 2% (11 practitioners) with compliance issues — addressed through extension of time
		Outcome: Compliance rates (approx 98%) have remained stable since at least 2004
		Outcome: 100 solicitors accredited during the reporting year in specialist fields such as advocacy, commercial litigation, mediation, and taxation law
		Outcome: During 2006–07, 147 programs were delivered to 3,584 participants. More than 35 regional and other seminars were also held
		Action: Introduction of the Rhetoric Series — a series of 7 seminars focusing on oratory and rhetoric skills. It is envisaged that a similar series will be undertaken in 2008
NSW Bar	Mandatory continuing professional education (10 CPD points) prior to issuing annual practicing certificate	Action: Renewal process identified practitioners with insufficient CPD who where given conditional practising certificates subject to undertaking CPD within specified timeframe
		Action: Implementation of Rhetoric Series to create a professional dialogue on the role of rhetoric and persuasion in the legal profession
NIA	Secure members' compliance with COE requirements	Action: Random audit of members and self-evaluation of compliance
		Action: Non-complying members may have membership downgraded if fail to take required remedial action
		Outcome: 1 member was sent for disciplinary review, suspended and fined for defiance in failing to document training undertaken adequately

5. Membership entry requirements

Membership entry requirements are one of the simplest and most effective ways of ensuring the ongoing integrity of an occupational/professional association. Membership entry requirements control the quality and competency of members according to specified criteria.

Associations that have Cover of Excellence® Schemes in operation must maintain entry requirements that ensure members have the skills and knowledge to practise at the high standards required for the professional work they perform. Associations must monitor the implementation of these requirements closely to ensure existing and new members continue to meet the entry requirements. Maintaining and enforcing rigorous entry requirements reduces risks of admitting non-qualified members to the occupational/professional association.

The exact composition of membership entry requirements includes carefully considered criteria specific to each association. There is a mix of competency-based assessments, requirements to obtain practice certificates (or registration with an independent licensing authority), academic qualifications, and experience that make up the entry requirements for such associations with Schemes under professional standards legislation.

Having adequate levels of professional indemnity insurance is also a key component of Schemes under the professional standards legislation. All associations have processes in place to check and/or audit compliance, with insurance requirements at both the initial application phase and annual renewal phase of membership to these associations.

Table 17: Membership entry requirements

Association	Strategies	Actions and/or outcomes
AVI	Applications examined by the AVI Secretary. Board reviews all applications to ensure compliance with entry requirements	Outcome: All new applicants met entry requirements  Outcome: 3 new practicing members were admitted to AVI and 10 new students were also admitted  Outcome: All new members were issued with a practising certificate
CIRCEA	Applicants must demonstrate membership of Engineers Australia and document compliance with practice requirements	Outcome: All members of CIRCEA are members of Engineers Australia  Outcome: All members have meet minimum investigative consulting practice requirements (500 hours pa or 25% of practice hours)
NSW Bar	Completion of Bar Practice Course (required before practising certificate is issued)	Action: A pass grade of 75% must be achieved before a issuing a practising certificate
LSNSW	Members must provide evidence of admission to Supreme Court of New South Wales  Evidence of Professional Indemnity Insurance Cover as part of application/renewal supplied  Lodgement of External Examiner's Report by due date (30 June)	Action: Prompt (within 2 days) entering of member data into database upon notification by Supreme Court  Outcome: All applicants provided sufficient evidence of approved policy cover or equivalent held  Outcome: Of the 2,831 External Examiner's Reports received by due date (up from 2,691 from previous year), only 6 were adverse. Appropriate investigations were scheduled  Outcome: Nil practising certificates cancelled as a result of non-lodgement of External Examiner's Report by due date. This continues the positive trend from previous year
NIA	Issue practitioner certificates only to those applicants who meet full membership criteria Compliance with minimum Professional Indemnity Insurance Cover for each NSW practitioner	Action: All applications for Public Practice Certificates are only issued to full qualifying members  Outcome: Compliance for completion of Public Practice Orientation Program (PPOP) reviewed after 6 months. All members (100%) have complied with requirements in the reporting period  Outcome: 99% compliance with remedial action taken for non-compliance  Outcome: Almost 50% of members had insurance cover in excess of minimum standards

6. Technical standards and guidance

Associations are encouraged to assist members to keep up-to-date with recent technical advances in their field.

Keeping abreast of technical advances reduces risks of errors and facilitates improvement of professional standards. Technical standards provide useful tools to facilitate adoption of best practice and document expected standards of performance.

Table 18: Technical standards and guidance

Association	Strategies	Actions and/or outcomes
NSW Bar	Increased use of library resources  Decreased number of complaints related to failure to keep up-to-date with changes of law	Action: Implementation of new catalogue system in 2008 to improve search capabilities  Action: Regular training sessions offered throughout the year to help members keep abreast of electronic research methods
ICAA (New South Wales Scheme)	Ongoing compliance with IFAC Code of Ethics for Accountants	Action: Compliance assessed bi-annually and is due for review in 2009  Action: Published a free, updated and interactive Quality Control Guide for ICAA members
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	Ongoing compliance with IFAC Code of Ethics for Accountants	Action: Compliance with technical standards assessed at every quality review  Action: Refer any identified breaches of standards (as part of quality assurance processes) to the Professional Conduct Officer of CPA Australia or IFAC
NIA	Improve timely access to information updates	Action: Regular weekly updates of newsletters
LSNSW	Provide a range of regulatory information such as legislation, case law, guidelines and practice notes available through the internet	Outcome: The number of visitors/enquiries to the regulatory section of the website was estimated to be more than 3,177,320 during the period

7. Quality control programs and quality assurance systems

Risk management depends largely on the implementation of appropriate and rigorous quality management systems, particularly when associations with Schemes cover occupations providing intellectual advice and services. Associations have a responsibility to ensure implementation of, and compliance with, suitable quality control management systems.

Table 19: Quality control programs and quality assurance systems

Association	Strategies	Actions and/or outcomes
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	Monitor Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards 320, which addresses risk management in accounting practices	Outcome: Member compliance within review cycle  Outcome: Development of a new e-learning program based on new IFAC guide
		Outcome: Publication of case studies and statistics on common areas of member breaches
ICAA (New South Wales Scheme)	Practices undertaking audits which require Registered Company Auditor (RCA) will be audited every 3 years	Outcome: Over 89% of members surveyed believe the review processes enhance quality control systems
	Each practice reviewed every 5 years	Outcome: 478 practices reviewed to 30 June 2007
	Commencing 1 July 2007 each practice undertaking audits which require a RCA are to be reviewed every 3 years
LSNSW	Practice management course participation for members seeking to move from an employed solicitor to practice on their own account	Outcome: 38 solicitors audited, 4 had competed course but failed to update records, 17 completed course with an extension of time and 17 had extenuating circumstances such as being overseas, inter-state or returning to employed practice

8. Claims and insurance monitoring

One of the key aims of professional standards legislation is to facilitate the ability of members of occupational/professional associations to access and afford professional indemnity insurance over the full insurance cycles.

The majority of associations have noted that professional indemnity insurance is readily available, continuing a trend of the last few years. Associations have taken this opportunity to negotiate better outcomes for members in the coverage and price of professional indemnity insurance.

The Professional Standards Councils are aware that many associations continue to have difficulty in obtaining claims information from the insurance industry and other sources about their own claims history and the insurance market conditions generally. Information about claims allow an association to understand why claims occur, so that an association can equip members with the knowledge and skills to avoid mistakes that gave rise to the claim in the first place.

ANNUAL RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

Table 20: Claims and insurance monitoring

Association	Claims and insurance monitoring
Association AVI	(Perceptions on costs and availability of Professional Indemnity Insurance)  A renewing member reported 1 claim for AVI. This is AVI's third claim since its inception of its Scheme, which initially commenced in 2001, and was renewed on 26 July 2007 for a further 5 years.
	Based on the results of an annual survey of its members, AVI noted that the average cost of insurance is 5% of gross fees, and due to the affordability of insurance this leads to the inference that professional indemnity insurance is readily available for AVI members.
CIRCEA	CIRCEA continued the long-term trend of low claims as there have been no known claims above the limitation of liability specified in the Scheme since inception in the 2002–03 financial year. There were no insurance claims against their members reported this year.
	CIRCEA also noted that insurance cover for their members has been more readily available in 2006–07 than in the previous 2 years, and that premiums appear to have stabilised.
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	CPA Australia reported 2 insurance claims in the reporting period for NSW members covered by their Scheme. This is slightly lower than last reporting year (5 claims), but continues a long-term trend where the number of claims and the severity of claims are low by historical standards.
	There are in excess of 23 underwriters willing to provide professional indemnity insurance for CPA Australia members, with the majority of members having cover from overseas providers.
ICAA (New South Wales Scheme)	The ICAA reported one insurance claim for the 2007 reporting year, identified as part of the ICAA audit program.
LSNSW	The LSNSW reported a drop in insurance claims from 701 in the last reporting period to 596 claims this period. The major areas of claims continue to be conveyancing, commercial, out-of-time personal injury, and other litigation.
	The LSNSW also noted that the availability of professional indemnity insurance is satisfactory up to the compulsory level of $ 1.5million.
NIA	The NIA reports that professional indemnity insurance is readily available to its members, with more than 50% of members reporting insurance premiums that are less than 1% of gross fees. The preferred insurance provider reports that the average cost is 2% of gross fees. Additionally, 99% of members are complying with business asset requirements, with the 1% outstanding being followed up.
NSW Bar	The NSW Bar is in a unique situation for an occupational association with a Scheme, where the type of policy, and the level of cover provided by the policy, is prescribed by the NSW Attorney General pursuant to section 403(2) of the Legal Profession Act 2004 (NSW).
	The NSW Bar reported that claims do not appear to be increasing against its members, continuing a trend of the past few years. Additionally, the number of claims relative to the number of barristers is quite low. A significant improvement in insurance coverage has been successfully negotiated for barristers with 1 insurer commencing to offer a 7-year run-off cover for those barristers who retire whilst insured with them.
	The major areas of claims or notifications reported were in professional conduct, commercial, personal injuries, and family law. The total number of insurance claims in the 2006–07 financial year was 23. Notifications have increased significantly in this reporting period, from 34 last year to 97 in 2006-07.

9. Compliance with disclosure and Cover of Excellence® requirements

The Cover of Excellence® is a trademark owned by the Professional Standards Councils of New South Wales used with its permission by all councils. It is used to identify Schemes approved by the Councils under professional standards legislation. Occupational associations apply for a Scheme on behalf of their members, and only members covered by the Scheme are eligible to display the Cover of Excellence® logo. Only Schemes that satisfy legislative requirements to improve professional standards and protect consumers are approved, giving participating association members limited civil liability.

The Councils promote the proper use of the Cover of Excellence® logo by the license and Style Guide. Use of the trademark is not mandatory. Occupational associations must monitor compliance with the trademark requirements and report non-compliance to the Councils. Councils may choose to prosecute any non-compliance with trademark requirements.

The use of the Cover of Excellence® logo does not replace the requirement that disclosure be provided to clients.

Five associations reported on compliance with disclosures and voluntary use of the logo for the 1 January to 31 December 2007.

Table 21: Cover of Excellence® Scheme monitoring

Association	Compliance with disclosure requirements
AVI	AVI members undertook compulsory self-assessment as part of the renewals process, as in previous reporting periods. A 100% compliance rate with the disclosure and Cover of Excellence ® logo and insurance policy requirements was again achieved by the AVI.
	A random audit of members found 100% of those audited could document compliance to the satisfaction of the AVI Board.
CPA Australia (NSW Scheme)	CPA Australia provided a quality review framework that underlies their compliance program. This quality review framework includes a 5-year review cycle, i.e. 20% annually.
ICAA (New South Wales Scheme)	The ICAA surveyed 50 practices as part of its compliance monitoring program, which represents approximately 12% of its members covered by the Cover of Excellence® Scheme in New South Wales. The survey found that there were high levels of compliance.
	In addition, 94% of firms selected in the random audit completed self-assessment forms within the reporting period. This represented a decrease of 4% in comparison to the previous reporting period.
	100% of respondents' documents carried a statement that liability is limited under the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) and included a copy of the Professional Standards Council's Disclosure Policy. ICAA members that were identified as not using the prescribed form have been followed up by the ICAA and matters satisfactorily resolved.
NIA	As in the 2006–07 reporting period, the NIA surveyed 25% of its NSW members to gauge compliance with Cover of Excellence® disclosure requirements. The survey found that there was a 94% compliance rate, with non-compliance being followed up by the NIA.
NSW Bar	The NSW Bar notifies, in writing, new members of their obligations under the Cover of Excellence® Scheme, including disclosure requirements and the Professional Standards Council's Policy Statement on Disclosure of Limited Liability
	A 'Declaration of Compliance of Disclosure' is required by NSW Bar members as part of the renewal of practising certificates. Of the 40 members that were randomly audited, 100% provided documentary evidence supporting the correct use of disclosure according the Cover of Excellence® Scheme.

Notes:

- 1. This unaudited financial extract is derived from information provided by the NSW Attorney General's Department (AGD) and records kept by the Secretariat. The AGD provides financial services to the NSW Council and the Council's financial information forms part of the Financial Statement published in the AGD Annual Report, which is subject to audit by the Audit Office of NSW. Figures are exclusive of Goods and Services Tax.
- 2. Revenue figures are prepared on an accruals basis of accounting.
- 3. Consultancy fees were for the provision of independent actuarial advice for the schemes.
- 4. Allowances paid to Council Members at rates determined by the Attorney General in accordance with Clause 4, Schedule 2, Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW). These allowances are the same for all members, with the exception of the Chair. The figures under each Council are derived from the application of a formula specified in the Professional Standards Interdepartmental Service Agreement 2008 which allocates expenses to each Council based on their proportion of the total revenue.
- 5. Final Total expenditure information derived from NSW Attorney General's Department (AGD).

Under the Professional Standards Interdepartmental Service Agreement 2008 signed by all the States and Territories with the NSW AGD each Council bears a proportion of the total expenditure based on their share of the total revenues for all the Councils. Each Council is invoiced by the NSW AGD for their portion of the expenditure.

Invoiced services provided by NSW Secretariat, in accordance with Service Agreement, were based on estimated expenditure at 30 June 2008. These amounts do not include Goods and Services Tax. The ACT amount invoiced was incorrect and ACT was overcharged by $5. The amount of service charges to the various PSCs totalling $260,066 is shown below (inclusive of the $5 overcharge):

	CONS	QLD	VIC	SA	WA	ACT	NT	TAS
Service charge paid to NSW AGD	260,066	53,083	78,456	28,321	49,912	20,041	15,579	14,674

There is a variation between the service charge invoiced to each Council on 30 June 2008 and final service charge to be applied for 2007-2008. The total variation is $36,062. Therefore the total amount invoiced should have been $224,004.

The variations for each Council will be settled during the year ended 30 June 2009, and are as shown below:

	CONS	QLD	VIC	SA	WA	ACT	NT	TAS
Variation to be payable to NSW AGD Q1 2008-09	-36,061	-4,937	-11,545	-5,608	2,272	-5,195	-5,402	-5,646

Therefore the service charge for each Council after these adjustments are:

	CONS	QLD	VIC	SA	WA	ACT	NT	TAS
Service charge payable to NSW AGD	224,005	48,146	66,911	22,713	52,184	14,846	10,177	9,028

<sup>6.</sup> NSW AGD surplus of $104,586 is the difference between NSW revenue as calculated on a preliminary basis $526,579 + $260,066 service charge from other Councils less expenses $682,059. This was repaid into NSW consolidated revenue, and was a one-off.

Freedom of Information reporting

The Freedom of Information Act 1992 (QLD) requires:

- that information concerning documents held by government are to be made available to members of the community;
- that members of the community are able to obtain access to documents held by government; and
- that members of the community are able to ensure that documents held by the government concerning their personal affairs are accurate, complete, up-to-date and not misleading.

'Government' includes a department, local council or public authority (such as a body established by an enactment or by government under an enactment for a public purpose).

The Professional Standards Council of Queensland received no requests under the Freedom of Information Act 1992 (QLD) in the reporting period.

Whistleblowers Protection

The Whistleblowers Protection Act 1994 (QLD) aims to protect the public interest by protecting persons who disclose:

- unlawful, negligent or improper conduct affecting the public sector;
- · danger to public health or safety; or
- danger to the environment.

The Professional Standards Council of Queensland received no disclosures covered by the Whistleblowers Protection Act 1994 (QLD).

Public Records Act 2002 (QLD)

Sound record keeping practices underpin good corporate governance. The Council has a system in place which ensures the accurate storage, capture and retrieval of documents as required by the Public Records Act 2002 (QLD) and Information Standard 40: Recordkeeping.

Privacy Principles

The Queensland government's Information Standard No. 42 and supporting guidelines establish a framework for the responsible collection and handling of personal information in the Queensland government public sector. Information Standards are issued under the authority of section 22(2) and section 56(1) of the Financial Management Standard 1997 (QLD) and apply to all government agencies and statutory bodies as defined under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1997 (QLD). Information Standard No. 42 requires personal information to be managed in accordance with a set of information privacy principles adapted from the Commonwealth government public sector information privacy principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The requirement for agencies to comply with the Information Standard and guidelines is administratively based.

Financial performance

The audited financial records of the Professional Standards Council of Queensland will be made available as an addendum to this report at a later date. For an unaudited statement of the revenue and expenditure of this Council refer to the Consolidated Financial Performance Extract of the Professional Standards Councils at the beginning of this section.

Manner of establishment and relevant minister

The Professional Standards Council of Victoria is established by the Professional Standards Act 2003 (VIC) as a body corporate. The Council reported throughout the year to the Attorney General the Honourable Rob Hulls.

National Competition Policy

The Professional Standards Council of Victoria, to the extent applicable, complies with the requirements of the National Competition Policy.

Reporting of office-based environmental impacts

The Financial Reporting Directions issued by the Minister for Finance require all entities defined as a 'Department' under section 3 of the Financial Management Act 1994 (VIC) and environmental agencies to report on office-based environmental impacts. The Council does not fall within this definition. The NSW Attorney General's Department, which provides Secretariat support to the Professional Standards Council of Victoria, has developed policies on energy use, waste production, and green purchasing.

Victorian Industry Participation Policy (VIPP)

The Professional Standards Council of Victoria did not enter into or complete any contracts over $3million in metropolitan Melbourne or $1million in regional Victoria, therefore VIPP reporting is not required.

Freedom of Information reporting

Victoria's Freedom of Information Act 1982 (VIC) gives members of the public the right to apply for access to information held by Ministers, State government departments, local councils, public hospitals, most semi-government agencies and statutory authorities.

The Professional Standards Council of Victoria received no requests under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (VIC) in the reporting period.

Compliance with Building Act 1993 (VIC)

The Professional Standards Council of Victoria does not lease or own property in Victoria.

Whistleblower's Protection Act 2001

The Whistleblowers Protection Act 2001 (VIC)

encourages and facilitates disclosures of improper conduct by public officers and public bodies. For the 12 months ending 30 June 2008, the Professional Standards Council of Victoria did not receive any disclosures covered by the Whistleblowers Protection Act 2001 (Vic).

What is the Cover of Excellence®?

The Cover of Excellence® is a trademark of the Professional Standards Councils. Occupational associations and professional associations with a Cover of Excellence® Scheme encourage professionals to adopt practical risk management strategies to achieve quality of service and to create a culture of excellence and responsibility. That culture supports qualified, proficient practitioners to serve the best interests of clients and provide a proper cover of protection.

The Cover of Excellence® logo is easily recognisable, and may be used by members of occupational associations and professional associations who enjoy the benefit of a Cover of Excellence® Scheme. Participants adopting the logo convey to consumers that they are committed to protecting and caring for consumers, improving standards, and reducing risk.
